The Journal of Continuing Education in the Health Professions

Volume 15, 1995

Subject Index

Accreditation, 18, 20, 68–69, 136, 138
Acquired immunodeficiency syndrome. See HIV/AIDS
Adult learning theory, 9–10, 15–16
Age, 17–18
AIDS. See HIV/AIDS
Alcohol, 106–114
ALT. See Adult learning theory
Audience response systems. See Touch pad technology
Audio-visual support, 133

Behavior, 178
Book reviews, 58–64, 122–125, 189–191, 251–253

Certification, 136
Change, 101–105
Chart audit, 31–39
Chart stimulated recall, 31–39
Collaborative work, 154, 179–180
Communication, 46, 50
Community involvement, 46
Computers, 235–240
Conflicts, social or family, 9, 13, 14
Continuing medical education
  accreditation, 18, 20, 68–69, 136, 138
  benefits and costs of participation, 8–20
  developing alliances for future, 132–134
  evolution of planning in, 70–78
  and health sciences libraries, 235–240
  information needs of providers, 117–120
  innovations and new practices, 126–127
  learner-specific, 95–99
  lectures, interactive learning, and knowledge retention, 231–234
  paradigms, 19–20, 84–86
  and quality management, 135–180
  responsible planning for, 196–201
  self-directed learning, 80–89, 203–216
  skills and knowledge needed in 21st century, 227–230
  and touch pad technology, 52–56
  world summit on, 40–47
Continuous quality improvement (CQI), 146–176, 181–187
Costs, 15, 17–19, 169, 171, 175–176
CQI. See Continuous quality improvement
Credit availability, 9, 10, 11–12
Curriculum, 30, 45

Decision making, 46
Delphi survey, 24–30
Deployment flowchart, 154
Diary use, by physicians, 209–216
Discrepancy analysis, 178–179
Doctors. See Physicians

Edinburgh Declaration, 40, 42
Education. See Continuing medical education; Medical education
Ethics, 45
Experimentation, 16

Faculty. See Teachers
Family facilities/activities, 9, 14
Family obligations, 9, 13
Feedback, 179
Fee-for-service (independent) practitioners, 132
Financial support, 241–250
Flow chart, 154
Funding, 30

Gender, 17–18
Grateful Med software, 239
Group process, 154
Guest faculty honoraria, 241–250
Guiding principles, 152, 154

Health care improvement. See Continuous quality improvement
Health care system, 43
HIV/AIDS, 44
HMOs (health maintenance organizations), 13
Honoraria, guest faculty, 241–250
Hospital care, 157–158
Hospital doctors, 91–94

Improvement knowledge, 146–152, 155, 156
Information providers, 132–133, 235–240
Instructional formats, 18–19
Internal medicine subspecialists, 24, 26–29
International collaboration, 47
Internet, 239–240

Judgment analysis, 8, 9

Knowledge, 124–125
  improvement, 146–152, 155, 156
  needed in 21st century, 227–230
  of psychology, 150–151
  retention, 231–234
  of system, 147–148, 158–159
  theory of, 151–152
  of variation, 148–150

Leadership, 147, 152–154
Learner-specific continuing education, 95–99
Learning, 45
  implications of movement toward systems, 77–78
  interactive, 231–234
  planning for individualized, 74–75
  settings for, 46
  total systems, 75–77
Lectures, 18–19, 231–234
Libraries, 132–133, 235–240
Licensure, 136
Literature, 117–120

Managed care, 133
Management training, 91–94
Measurement of behaviors, 73–74
Medical audit, 137
Medical education, 41, 43–44
  multi-professional, 46
  postgraduate, 45
  settings for, 46
  See also Continuing medical education
Mission, 152
Myers-Briggs Type Inventory, 95–99

National Institutes of Health grants, 245–246
Needs assessment, 30
Negotiation, 199–200
Nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drugs (NSAIDs), 31–32
NSAIDs. See Nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drugs
Nursing, 101–105

Ontario Substance Abuse Facilitator Model, 106–114
Osteoarthritis, 31–32
Outcomes, 179, 185

Paradigms, 19–20, 84–86
Partnership, 101–105
Patience, 168–169
Patient care, 19, 142–143, 171
Patient charts, 31–39
Peer review, 137
Physicians
  and continuous quality improvement, 170
  diary use, 209–216
  eroding of role of, 41
  generalists, 49–51

The Journal of Continuing Education in the Health Professions

Volume 15, 1995

Subject Index

Accreditation, 18, 20, 68–69, 136, 138
Acquired immunodeficiency syndrome. See HIV/AIDS
Adult learning theory, 9–10, 15–16
Age, 17–18
AIDS. See HIV/AIDS
Alcohol, 106–114
ALT. See Adult learning theory
Audience response systems. See Touch pad technology
Audio-visual support, 133

Behavior, 178
Book reviews, 58–64, 122–125, 189–191, 251–253

Certification, 136
Change, 101–105
Chart audit, 31–39
Chart stimulated recall, 31–39
Collaborative work, 154, 179–180
Communication, 46, 50
Community involvement, 46
Computers, 235–240
Conflicts, social or family, 9, 13, 14
Continuing medical education
  accreditation, 18, 20, 68–69, 136, 138
  benefits and costs of participation, 8–20
  developing alliances for future, 132–134
  evolution of planning in, 70–78
  and health sciences libraries, 235–240
  information needs of providers, 117–120
  innovations and new practices, 126–127
  learner-specific, 95–99
  lectures, interactive learning, and knowledge retention, 231–234
  paradigms, 19–20, 84–86
  and quality management, 135–180
  responsible planning for, 196–201
  self-directed learning, 80–89, 203–216
  skills and knowledge needed in 21st century, 227–230
  and touch pad technology, 52–56
  world summit on, 40–47
Continuous quality improvement (CQI), 146–176, 181–187
Costs, 15, 17–19, 169, 171, 175–176
CQI. See Continuous quality improvement
Credit availability, 9, 10, 11–12
Curriculum, 30, 45

Decision making, 46
Delphi survey, 24–30
Deployment flowchart, 154
Diary use, by physicians, 209–216
Discrepancy analysis, 178–179
Doctors. See Physicians

Edinburgh Declaration, 40, 42
Education. See Continuing medical education; Medical education
Ethics, 45
Experimentation, 16

Faculty. See Teachers
Family facilities/activities, 9, 14
Family obligations, 9, 13
Feedback, 179
Fee-for-service (independent) practitioners, 132
Financial support, 241–250
Flow chart, 154
Funding, 30

Gender, 17–18
Grateful Med software, 239
Group process, 154
Guest faculty honoraria, 241–250
Guiding principles, 152, 154

Health care improvement. See Continuous quality improvement
Health care system, 43
HIV/AIDS, 44
HMOs (health maintenance organizations), 13
Honoraria, guest faculty, 241–250
Hospital care, 157–158
Hospital doctors, 91–94

Improvement knowledge, 146–152, 155, 156
Information providers, 132–133, 235–240
Instructional formats, 18–19
Internal medicine subspecialists, 24, 26–29
International collaboration, 47
Internet, 239–240

Judgment analysis, 8, 9

Knowledge, 124–125
  improvement, 146–152, 155, 156
  needed in 21st century, 227–230
  of psychology, 150–151
  retention, 231–234
  of system, 147–148, 158–159
  theory of, 151–152
  of variation, 148–150

Leadership, 147, 152–154
Learner-specific continuing education, 95–99
Learning, 45
  implications of movement toward systems, 77–78
  interactive, 231–234
  planning for individualized, 74–75
  settings for, 46
  total systems, 75–77
Lectures, 18–19, 231–234
Libraries, 132–133, 235–240
Licensure, 136
Literature, 117–120

Managed care, 133
Management training, 91–94
Measurement of behaviors, 73–74
Medical audit, 137
Medical education, 41, 43–44
  multi-professional, 46
  postgraduate, 45
  settings for, 46
  See also Continuing medical education
Mission, 152
Myers-Briggs Type Inventory, 95–99

National Institutes of Health grants, 245–246
Needs assessment, 30
Negotiation, 199–200
Nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drugs (NSAIDs), 31–32
NSAIDs. See Nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drugs
Nursing, 101–105

Ontario Substance Abuse Facilitator Model, 106–114
Osteoarthritis, 31–32
Outcomes, 179, 185

Paradigms, 19–20, 84–86
Partnership, 101–105
Patience, 168–169
Patient care, 19, 142–143, 171
Patient charts, 31–39
Peer review, 137
Physicians
  and continuous quality improvement, 170
  diary use, 209–216
  eroding of role of, 41
  generalists, 49–51

group practices, 133
HMO, 13
as learners, 122–123
management training program for hospital, 91–94 needs, 19–20
office management decisions, 31–39 in rural areas, 14, 203–207 skin cancer seminar, 217–225 specialists, 23–29, 44, 48–49 substance abuse model, 106–114 task of, 41
See also Continuing medical education
Planning, 138–139, 155, 166, 167–168 evolution of, 70–78 program, 196–201
Power, 197
Prevention, 19
Primary care, 19
model for training teams, 181–187
retraining specialists for, 23–29
Problem setting, 16
Professional associations, 133
Professional autonomy, 169–170
Psychology, 150–151
Public health, 134

Quality management and continual improvement of health care, 146–172 continuing medical education relationship, 177–180 education in multifacility health care organization, 175–176 successes and lessons in implementation, 165–172 systems, 135–143

Reflective practitioner, 16
Research, and narrowing gap with practice, 5
Research and Development Resource Base in Continuing Medical Education (RDRB/CME), 117–120
Retraining, 23–29
Rural areas, 14, 101–105, 203–207

Sage Publications, 251–253
Science, 45
Self-directed learning, 80–89, 203–216
Skills, 227–230
Skin cancer, 217–225
Social obligations, 9, 13
Speakers' reputations, 9, 10, 12–13
Specialists. See Physicians
Statistical thinking, 154–155
Substance Abuse Facilitator Model, 106–114
System map, 154

Teachers
guest faculty honoraria, 241–250
roles, 20
Technical competence, 200–201
Technology, 50, 237–238
See also Computers
Topic, 9, 10, 12
Total learning systems, 75–77
Touch pad technology (TPT), 52–56
TPT. See Touch pad technology
Travel time, 9, 10, 14

University of Michigan, 241–250
Utilization review, 137

Validation, 13, 20
Veterans Health Administration, 175–176

World Summit on Medical Education, 40–47

Author Index

Arnold, Gretchen Naisawald, 235
Atkinson, Martin A., 31

Batalden, Paul B., 146
Baumber, John S., 31
Bennett, N.L., 70, 177
Bing-You, Robert G., 23
Blandford, Liane, 52
Boyle, Catherine, 217
Brink, Thomas, 227

Campbell, Craig, 209
Candy, P.C., 80
Casebeer, L., 70, 227
Cervero, Ronald M., 196
Clay, Maria C., 95
Coulehan, John L., 48
Crichton, Jennifer E., 23
Crowe, Todd G., 106
Crutcher, Rodney A., 31

Elford, R. Wayne, 31
Ellis, Kathleen S., 106

Fore, Robert C., 68
Fox, Robert D., 7, 209

Gondocz, S. Tunde, 209

Harrison, R. Van, 241
Hoftvedt, Bjorn Oscar, 91
Hogan, David B., 31
Huller, Mary S., 181
Humphries, Anne Wood, 235

Jay, Stephen, 227
Jennett, Penny A., 31

Kaluzny, Arnold D., 165
Karpiak, Irene E., 124

Leist, James C., 134, 227
Lichtenauer, David F., 8
Lockyer, Jocelyn, 52, 252
Lott, Dennis R., 122, 203

Maccannell, Keith L., 31
MacDonald, M. Jo, 175
Mazmanian, Paul E., 58
McLaughlin, Curtis P., 165
Miller, Vaughn, 227
Moore, Donald E., Jr., 126, 135, 191
Morris, Gloria, 181

Natrud, Eilif, 91
Newell, Linda Theoret, 62
Nichols, Linda, 181

Parboosingh, John T., 209
Paus, Albert, 91
Powell, Lysbeth Y., 106

Raszkowski, R.R., 8
Rush, Brian R., 106

Sandsmark, Morten, 91
Schoyen, Rolf, 91
Scott, Susan M., 31
Sherwood, Gwen D., 101
Silverberg, Jay, 231
Slotnick, H.B., 8
Smedley, Robert R., 189
Stoltz, Patricia K., 146
Stross, Jeoffrey K., 241
Sundelin, Folke, 91
Szalai, John Paul, 231

Taylor-Vaisey, Anne, 117, 231
Tipping, Jane, 231

Walton, H.J., 40
Ward, Jeanette, 217
Wennberg, David E., 23
Wilson, Arthur L., 196
Worthington, Ralph C., 95